

Donna White Greene

Retired Chief Master Sergeant of the United States Air Force with nearly 30 years of distinguished service, including participation in major military operations such as Desert Shield, Desert Storm, the Global War on Terrorism, and Operation Enduring Freedom. She is a proven leader with extensive experience in operations, personnel development, and mission readiness, known for her integrity, discipline, and commitment to excellence.

She holds an Associate of Arts in Psychology from Solano College in Fairfield, California, a Bachelor of Arts in Management from Saint Mary's College in Moraga, California, and a Master of Arts in Community Psychology from Springfield College in Springfield, Massachusetts.

A devoted wife, mother of four, and proud grandmother of seven, she continues her life of service through faith and community. She currently serves as a Woman Leader within her church as a Deaconess, Prayer H.E.L.P. Ministry Leader, and Teen Church Co-Leader alongside her husband. She is also an active member of the National Council of Negro Women and Praying Mamas, Inc., reflecting her deep commitment to empowering others, strengthening families, and uplifting her community.

Respectfully submitted,

Donna W. Greene, CMSgt USAFR (RET)